Camp Alumni Associations...an Introduction

The BSA Alumni Association defines Scouting Alumni as anyone who has ever been personally impacted by Scouting. The definition is broad by design to be more inclusive. Scouting Alumni can include those who are currently registered and active in the Scouting program, those who are registered but currently disengaged, and those who are unregistered and may have been disconnected from Scouting for some period. Regardless of their registration status and level of engagement, these groups of individuals are all considered to be Scouting Alumni.

The primary mission of the BSA Alumni Association is to assist the Scouting program in its alumni relations efforts through the identification, outreach, meaningful engagement, and retention of its Scouting Alumni. Simply put, it is goal of the BSA Alumni Association to bring every Scouting alumnus back to the campfire...and there is no better way to accomplish this than through a local camp alumni association.

When asked about their best Scouting memory, many Scouting Alumni will respond with a fond story involving their Scout camp, especially during their time at summer camp. Long-term camping at one’s Scout camp is a memorable experience shared by nearly all Scouting Alumni. With that said, the formation of a local camp alumni association may be one of the best tools in the toolbox for reconnecting with Scouting Alumni, rekindling their Scouting spirit, and re-engaging them in the Scouting program.

Therefore, the BSA Alumni Association has developed a “Toolkit” to assist councils in developing a Camp Alumni Association. Notice that we said Camp Alumni Association, and not Camp Staff Alumni Association. The reason for this is to allow your alumni association to be less restrictive and more inclusive. A Camp Staff Alumni Association can always be a sub-group of the larger Camp Alumni Association.

Feel free to review the information found within the toolkit, and use the documents and images as templates, references, and suggestions to assist your council in developing a new or strengthening an existing Camp Alumni Association. The mission of most camp alumni associations is to provide "Spirit, Service, and Support" to their local Scout camp and/or reservation, and its related outdoor programs. The purpose of most camp alumni associations is to help sustain and enhance the traditions, legacy, and permanence of their local Scout and/or reservation through a network of active and dedicated alumni.

Remember, “Once a Scout, Always a Scout”

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

The BSA Alumni Association has created a recognition program to encourage participation in council alumni relations programs, including those associated with camp alumni activities. Areas of participation may include but are not limited to: alumni identification, outreach, engagement, and retention; youth education; service.

Alumni Award

The Alumni Award is designed to encourage alumni to actively promote alumni activities in their council. The award focuses on accomplishment in the areas of alumni service and development with emphasis on memories, marketing, mentoring, membership, manpower, and money. Specific requirements are listed on the application form, which can be found on the BSA’s Alumni website at https://scoutingalumni.org.

Alumnus of the Year Awards

The Alumnus of the Year Awards are the BSA Alumni Association’s highest recognition for alumni service. These awards were established to recognize alumni of the BSA who, over a sustained period of time, have used the skills and values they learned through their association with Scouting to make significant and long-lasting contributions to the Scouting alumni movement, to Scouting in general, and to their communities. The awards are not meant to be another Person of the Year, Good Citizen, or General Philanthropist award, but rather for specific alumni service. There are three levels of this award: National Alumnus of the Year, Territories Alumnus of the Year, and Council Alumnus of the Year. All are bestowed for alumni service.

The Council Alumnus of the Year Award (shown above), is given for exceptional service to the alumni movement on a council-wide basis. Each council may select one nominee for this award annually. The council must notify the national office of their selection allowing accurate record keeping and current website information. The national office will forward an award certificate to be signed locally for a formal presentation at a public event. A neck ribbon and lapel pin are also available from the national office for award recipients.

For more information, including a list of past recipients and the application form, please visit the BSA’s Alumni website at https://scoutingalumni.org.
The logos shown below are merely a few examples of the types of designs your council might select to use to recognize its Camp Alumni Association.
